

Here is our preview of our upcoming Biologic Architecture Foundation of Britain conference 09- Wales (Sequel to Mexico City International Conference pics below)

Saturday 3rd October 2009
10am - 6pm at Chapter, Cardiff

Sunday 4th October 2009
10am - 6pm at Coed Hills, Cardiff presents.....

LIFE FORM

conference exploring biologic architecture, holistic building systems and geomantic built environments

SPEAKERS INCLUDE:

Michael Rice
Biologic architecture in commercial practice and beautiful detailing for harmonious environments

Oldrich Hozman
Holistic construction processes and criteria for success in biologic architecture and sacred space

Shaun Kirwan
Good practice for geomancy in architecture and designing in accordance with earth energies

Dan Winter
Science of buildings with life supporting electric fields and designing spaces as living capacitors.

Arturo Ponce
The energetics of cities and build up of electrosmog networking ● discusions ● bookstall ● refreshments ● exhibition workshops in constructing energetically harmonious landscapes and life-supporting architecture

ACTIVITIES INCLUDE:

Site Visit
Meet up at ancient burial chambers in Tinkinswood

Making a Labyrinth
Construction of an active labyrinth in the forest

Sculpture Installation
Unveiling competition winning design run by BioArchitecture Foundation (see website for brief)

Giant Mandalas
Workshop with Tim Halewood and talk on colour theory

Guided Tour
Architecture, sculpture and sacred spaces integrated into community

poetry ● artwork ● storytelling ● bonfire ● barbecue

Tickets £15 per day. For more information and online booking go to www.biologicalarchitecture.co.uk or call 07973 282 725